COUNT ONE

(Detention in Violation of the Statute and Regulations)

20. Petitioner repeats and re-alleges the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 19 above as though set forth fully herein.
21. Section 241 of the Immigration and Nationality Act permits the detention of an alien with a final order of removal for a period of 90 days. Beyond the statutory period, the Supreme Court has held that six months is a presumptively reasonable period of detention for the government to affect removal. Zadvydas v. Davis, 533 U.S. 678, 701 (2001). Once six months have passed, the alien must be released if there is no reasonable likelihood of removal in the reasonably foreseeable future. Zadvydas, 533 U.S. at 699-700. In this case, ICE has detained petitioner for more than six months since the issuance of his final order of removal.
22. No special circumstances exist to justify petitioner's continued detention:
- a. Petitioner is not an alien with a "highly contagious disease posing a danger to the public." See 8 C.F.R. § 241.14(b).
 - b. Petitioner's release would not cause "serious adverse foreign policy consequences." See 8 C.F.R. § 241.14(c)(1). There is no indication that Petitioner's release would have "serious adverse" foreign policy consequences.
 - c. Petitioner was never and is not now detained on account of security or terrorism concerns. See 8 C.F.R. § 241.14(d)(1).
 - d. Petitioner has not committed a violent crime as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 16 as would classify him as "specially dangerous." See 8 C.F.R. § 241.14(0)(I). His/her release therefore would not pose a special danger to the public. See 8 C.F.R. § 241.14(f).

23. Because there is no significant likelihood of removal in the reasonably foreseeable future, and because none of the special circumstances exist here to justify petitioner's continued detention, petitioner must be released under ICE supervision.

COUNT TWO

(Substantive Due Process Violation)

24. Petitioner repeats and re-alleges the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 19 as though set forth fully herein.

25. As a person in the United States, petitioner is protected by the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment. ICE has detained petitioner for more than six months since the issuance of his final order of removal. There is no significant likelihood that petitioner's removal will occur in the reasonably foreseeable future. Petitioner does not pose a danger to the community or a risk for flight, and no special circumstances exist to justify his continued detention. As Petitioner is not dangerous, not a flight risk, and cannot be removed, his indefinite detention is not justified and violates substantive due process. See Zadvydas, 533 U.S. at 690-91.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, petitioner prays that this Honorable Court to grant the following relief:

1. Issue an Order:

a. Declaring that petitioner's continued detention is not authorized by the INA and/or violates the Fifth Amendment;

b. Granting this petition for a Writ of Habeas Corpus and releasing petitioner under an order of supervision;

2. Grant any other and further relief this Court may deem appropriate.

I affirm, under penalty of perjury, that the foregoing is true and correct.
